Emergency Preparedness Kit for Your Car

It's Summer Vacation Time!

This is the time of year when people pile into their car and take off on the annual summer vacation. As decisions are being made of what needs to be packed, be sure one of the items you include is an emergency preparedness kit for your car.

Disasters can occur at any place or time. Having a well stocked emergency kit in your car will provide you with essential items should a disaster happen while you are on the road.

Items for Your Car Kit

At a minimum, have the basic supplies listed below.

- Water: Keep a 3 day supply of emergency drinking water
- Food: At least a 3 day supply of emergency food is recommended
- Flashlight and extra batteries
- First aid kit
- Personal medications (7day supply)
- Matches and waterproof container
- Flares and jumper cables
